Day 5 (B,L)

City Tour and Shopping Time with lunch

Breakfast in the hotel's restaurant. We depart from the hotel for a half day Muscat city tour; our first visit will be the Royal Opera House and then we drive to the Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque that has a remarkable architectural achievement. As a contemporary place of worship it serves as a spiritual landmark for modern Oman, projecting the values and aspirations of the Omani people. As an edifice, it maintains a perfect balance between aesthetics, culture and deeply rooted Islamic tradition.

We continue to Muttrah - the main port & commercial centre, and explore the colorful historic souk. This is a real souk with winding alleys and backstreets and stalls selling all manner of textiles, jewelry, traditional Omani perfumes (bukhoor - made of frankincense), souvenirs and antiques.

After visit to the souk we continue to Bait Al Zubair Museum. Bait Al Zubair is itself a part of Muscat heritage. Shiekh Al Zubair who served three former Sultans, founded the house in 1914 and his son Mohammad Al Zubair opened it as a museum in 1998. It's carved doors opens up into a fortress style reception. The museum has Oman's finest and most comprehensive collections of antiques from all over the Sultanate. The museum also includes traditional Omani weaponry, jewellery, costumes, domestic utensils and recreated urban and rural environments.

From the museum we take a walk through the old city of Muscat flanked by twin 16th century forts "Jalali" & "Mirani". We also visit the Al Alam Palace for a photo stop, His Majesty Sultan Qaboos residence.

Lunch at local restaurant...

After the lunch we continue to Shatti Al Qurum Beach is located at the heart of Muscat's beachfront tourist zone. It is perfectly suited for out-of-town visitors when staying in Muscat. Visit a fine shopping complex Jawharat Al Shatti too.

After a full day exploring the city's unique treasures, we will return to our hotel to spend the evening relaxing and absorbing the mystical atmosphere of Muscat. Overnight in Muscat
